A Look into the Future

On a dark October night, four amateur scientists met with the hopes of developing a chemical to foresee the future of the Class of '65. As the chemicals were combined, steam began to rise, and from the test tube, a magnificent form slowly began to take shape and the 22 members of the Class of '65 appeared.

As the forms begin to clear we can see the planet Mars where each member of the class of '65 is now living. We see Jerry Simmons, the greatest evangelist since Billy Graham, flying around Mars preaching the gospel to masses of older people who are still afflicted with the "Beatles". Next, we see Nadine Clutter, the owner of the Mars Coffee Shoppe where she has to grind all of her coffee by hand. Lawrence Workman, our high school football hero, is now a monkey trainer for the Mars Olympic swimming team. He is helped by his able assistant, Martha Dunn, who recently made international news when she broke a typing record. Donald Walton is now a dwarf doctor; because before one of his major operations he misread and drank from the wrong bottle. June Landis, the quiet shy guy who took a course in Vocal Music in 64-65, is now a music teacher. He majored in jazz and opera. Pat Westfall has established an "Old Maid's Rest Home" but finally gave up at the ripe old age of 80 to marry a 39-year old millionaire. Eugene Dean, our high-school playboy has certainly changed. He is now a psychiatrist. His first patient was the one and only Sarrah Jones Pennington. She went berserk trying to keep up with her husband. However, she is now recovering thanks to Dr. Dean. Barbara Switzer started growing after graduation and is now 6'8" and trains giraffes as a profession. Carolyn Callison recently got picked up by the "electronic brain patrol" for peddling marijuana and her sentence was to have her head shaved, orbit Mars twice a day, and to make little red poppies for the Mars Salvation Army. Our "cider lovin'" friend, Robert Wymer, a millionaire singer and teen idol, started the first "moonshine still" on Mars. He is helped by Ronald Bruffey who was voted the best looking boy in the senior class. Ronald is also a famous astronaut who hopes to conquer Venus soon. But for some odd reason, Ron always finds the time to help Robert with another batch of "moonshine". Linda Williams McMillion, 10 husbands, 10 children, and 10 army bases later is now back at her home in Lobelia, Mars. She is currently operating the "Old Maid's Rest Home" formerly owned by Pat Westfall. Gary Hollandsworth, the one noted for his brainstorm, is now in prison for life. His last and greatest brainstorm was to murder the former ruler of the planet by putting poison in his rum because the ruler was a Democrat Greenman. Raymond Workman has been elected president of the planet and is married to the owner of the "Little Rascals Nursery", Drema Pritt. Drema is the most gracious "First Lady" in 100 years. We regret to say that Linnie Hickman cannot be located at this time. She has accepted a very confidential position with the government in Washington as an F.B.I. spy and is working on a case at this time. Billy Hall is the owner of the largest hotel on Mars and is kept busy following the demands of his customers who are his old classmates.

The form slowly begins to cloud over and the class members fade away. It has been a pleasant experience to see all of the former seniors, and we hope to be re-united in the near future.

A Look Back

We shall look back with nostalgic longing for the days that were and can never be again. We shall look and we shall wish for something tangible to bring back the dear, dead days. Perhaps this record--man always seems desirous of leaving behind some record--which we commit with care to paper, may make the old days come alive again.

We were in the seventh grade that fall of 1959. We felt helpless, scared and left out. There were 41 of us that winter as we faced the crowded months ahead. We elected these class officers: Robert Wymer, President; Eldora Blankenship, Vice-President; and Lawrence Workman, Secretary-Treasurer. We were proud to have as our sponsor, Mr. Emery Anderson.

In the year of 1960 we entered the halls of Hillsboro High School with 32 members. We had lost Linda Ruby, Junior Oscar, Henry Harper, Eldora Blankenship, James Daughtery, Nancy Hammons, and Richard Long. As our leaders this year we elected the following officers: Gary Hollandsworth, President; Donald McCoy, Vice-President; Lawrence Workman, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Emery Anderson was again our sponsor.

1961-62 dawned upon us, we were Freshmen, the greenhorns. How eager the upper-classmen were to remind us that as freshmen we were as low as to be barely noticed. We were proud to be represented by Barbara Switzer as attendant to the Homecoming Queen. We welcomed Mrs. Derwood Custer as our sponsor. We were happy to have Patty Westfall and Gary Hollandsworth elected as May Day King and Queen. All freshmen participated in band or athletics. This year we gained Marvel Holmes, Patsy Prather, and Thermund Roberts. Janet Landis placed second in an essay for the Soil Conservation contest held in Lewisburg.

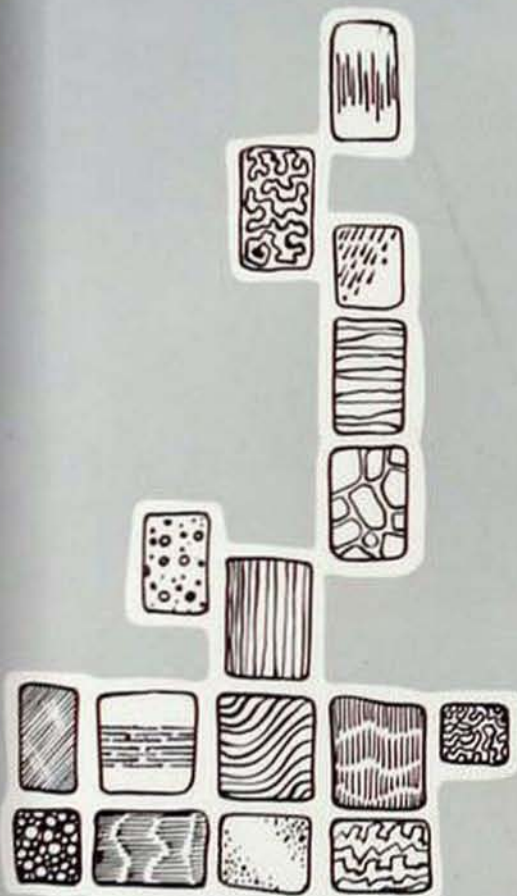

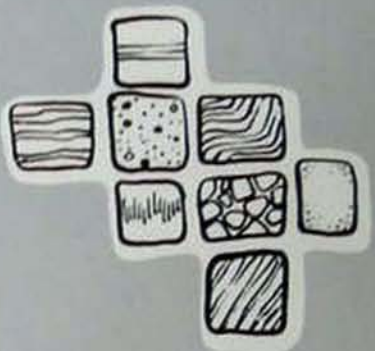

As sophomores we entered Hillsboro High School as a class with 33 members. We had lost Marvel Holmes, Bill Alberts and Thermund Roberts. Mrs. Derwood Custer sponsored us again and helped with our class activities, one of which was the traditional freshman initiation. Now it was our turn to be the initiators. To help us with our increased activities we elected these class officers: Carolyn Callison, President; Ronald Bruffey, Vice-President; Patsy Prather, Secretary; Linda McMillion, Treasurer. As if to show that we are now becoming a part of things Barbara Switzer and Patty Westfall were chosen as cheerleaders. Barbara Switzer was elected FFA Chapter Sweetheart and she was also attendant to the Miss Red Devil. Nadine Clutter was elected attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Janet Landis won 1st place in the Soil Conservation Essay Contest in Lewisburg.

Juniors! Upper Classmen! How good it seemed. Our ranks had been depleted from the former 41, but there were still 26 of us. We had lost Betty Fowler, Elma Workman, and Vivian Shue. We welcomed back Mrs. Derwood Custer and Mr. Custer joined her as our sponsors. Our officers were Carolyn Callison, President; Nadine Clutter, Vice-President; Linda McMillion, Secretary; Lawrence Workman, Treasurer, and Drema Pritt Sgt-at-Arms. Carolyn Callison was attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Barbara Switzer was again elected attendant to Miss Red Devil. There were three things that happened that pleased us very much this year. First, we received our class rings and that really made us feel important. Second, we presented our play, "Shy Guy", very successfully, and had great fun doing it. Third, we felt that we achieved a social success with our Junior-Senior Prom. With much work the theme, "Singing in the Rain," came out with "éclat". Our class received further recognition by having two members elected to attend "Know Your State Government Day" in Charleston. They were Robert Wymer and Linda McMillion. Then too, 9 of our members were elected for the National Honor Society. Nadine Clutter won 1st place in the county with her Soil Conservation essay, "Forest's Our Heritage." Lawrence Workman was chosen to attend Boy's State. Carolyn Callison was president of the FHA and Donald Walton was elected president of the FFA. Gary Hollandsworth was elected president of the Pep Club. The Student Council was organized this year.

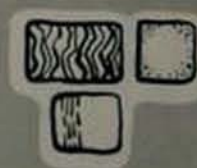

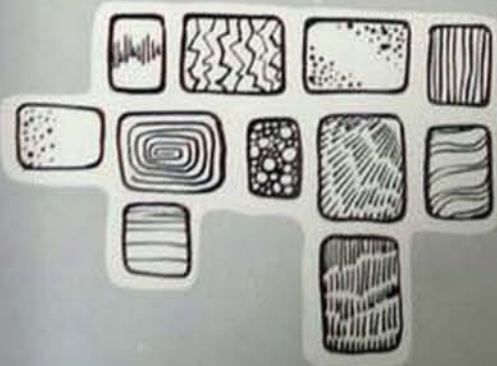

Now the big year is here, we are seniors at last. George Combs, Leffort Kidd, and Patsy Prather are no longer with us. George Edgar attends Greenbrier Military School this year. We are fortunate to have Mrs. Fay Moore and Mr. Ralph Cobun as our sponsors. Our officers for this year are: Gary Hollandsworth, President; Robert Wymer, Vice-President; Lawrence Workman, Secretary; Gerald Simmons, Treasurer; and Ronald Bruffey, Reporter. Drema Pritt was our attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Nadine Clutter has been chosen as a majorette and Patty Westfall is head cheerleader.

As the deadline for our yearbook nears, we are looking forward to the events of the coming months. We are happily anticipating our senior play, and we know that our trip to Washington, D. C. will become a reality not a dream. Finally, there will be the bitter-sweet moments of Commencement and our farewell to Hillsboro High School, to all the teachers and to Mr. Moore who made all this possible. We will never forget these most precious years and most exciting moments.
